

1

4

5

6

6. TRUE OR FAUX Get the industrial look without the rustic renovation with the Tilt slab by Kemra – faux-concrete wallpaper that's both realistic and durable. $160, miltonandking.com
7. COPPER TONES The iittala Leimu table lamp was inspired by the striking combination of glass and concrete in modern architecture. Available in two sizes in copper or grey mouth-blown glass, from $1,500, anibou.com.au
8. DUTCH DESIGN The Mensch Made vase toys with the contradiction between culture and nature teaming concrete with delicate foliage imprints, some of them gold-plated. $249, thedesigngiftshop.com
9. HOLD ALL With a smooth surface and solid feel, this tray is the versatile holder for anything from small herb pots to candles to bits and bobs. Also available in round and black, from $39, zakki.com.au

8

9

set in CONCRETE

2

WITH AN INDUSTRIAL EDGE AND COOL, SMOOTH LINES, CONCRETE IS THE NEW HEAVYWEIGHT OF THE INTERIORS SCENE. BY LUISA VOLPATO.

1. GREAT OUTDOORS SLABSbyDesign specialises in custom-made polished concrete furniture like this outdoor table with black powder-coated steel base and legs – the perfect centerpiece for a newly renovated courtyard. From $4,000, slabsbydesign.com.au
2. PRETTY PENDANTS Hand-painted on the outside (in mint, slate, blush or ice) with a raw concrete inside, the Finn pendant looks great when hung in odd-numbered clusters. $99.95, milkandsugar.com.au
3. GREEN THUMB These sturdy little planters make the perfect display pot for succulents, cacti or air plants. Or turn them upside down for a sculpture or paperweight. From $17.50, handmadebymoosbop.etsy.com
4. TAILORED TILES Cement floor and wall tiles are making a comeback thanks to fresh, modern and colourful designs that capture the essence of traditional craftsmanship. From $130 per m², 200x200mm, perini.com.au
5. LIGHT WORKS The Tomahawk, Jetplane and Lovebug lamps contrast a solid cement base with a light and colourful textured shade. From $229, mayfieldlamps.com.au

3

{ LUISA VOLPATO IS AN INTERIOR DESIGNER, STYLIST AND WRITER. LUISAVOLPATO.COM.AU }

