

Wall art

Make a feature of a wall or large open space with the Brazilian Orchid tree screen by Melbourne-based contemporary design studio Kif & Katast. The screens come in a variety of designs and are customised from steel, perforated mesh or a range of other materials. They can be wall mounted or used as a freestanding screen or room divider. Their use is only limited by your imagination. Suitable indoors or out. POA. kifandkatast.com.au

Fine lines

The elegant curves and fine lines of the Edith votive holder create a gorgeous silhouette, with or without candlelight. In white, black or pewter. Large ($62) or small ($40). salaverde.com.au

YOUR STYLE

Minimal look

Oversized light globes take centre stage with pared back pendant lights like the Rope light ($260) which you can twist and turn into your very own macramé installation. Both styles available in various colours. lightly.com.au

Pop of colour

Inject some colour and contrast to timber and soft furnishings with the striking Spindle side table in this season's hottest accent colour – yellow – great teamed with black and white. Also available in red or white. A steal at only $149. freedom.com.au

STYLE MOTTO: To evoke the senses and capture the beauty and nostalgia of times gone by, by marrying the aesthetics of new technology and traditional techniques.

MUST HAVE: My new walk-in-wardrobe.

Since we are renovating our warehouse conversion at the moment I am dying for our bedroom to be completed so my summer/winter clothes can stop the suitcase rotation.

MY INSPIRATION: Colour, texture and light stimulate me the most. I also get great joy out of arranging fresh cut flowers for events, collecting English bone china patterns and I have a weakness for pop colours.

FABULOUS FIND: Finding 10,000 saucers going to landfill in China and then creating them into a product for a company in the US - that was a good find.

ON TREND NOW: Come into the shop and see! The Lightly Rope light in bright yellow – it looks fabulous woven into a sculptural light feature.
