Style motto: Love it? Live it.

Must-have: Secret storage pieces. I'm incredibly sentimental and find it hard to part with all types of things. Right now, I'm coveting the range of storage units in our Patchwork collection. The seven different finishes – six different warm wood tones in a lo-gloss white case – mean that it will look good placed where you want it today, and will still work in other spaces and with other furniture in the future. It's a fall-in-love-forever piece.

Inspiration: I look for inspiration for the home in places that make me feel most at home. Interesting details discovered in boutiques, hotels and restaurants can easily translate to interior spaces. In terms of colour and finish inspiration, there's so much to find in places we respond to emotionally. If you have a favourite piece of clothing or an outfit you love there's probably great colour inspiration in that too: you just need to look closely.

Fab find: I'm always on the hunt for the Franco Albini stool, designed in 1951. Subtly ethnic and quietly organic, with a relaxed but sophisticated silhouette, I keep an eye out for it on eBay and Etsy.

On trend now: Tonal, layered texture brings a new indulgence to the bed. Softly washed linens, chunkier knits, organic cotton sheeting and a print on a pillow or a duvet. There's no better way to express your style right than playing with pattern. Mix honeycombs, chain motifs, stripes, chevrons, small and large geometrics and solids in your own way. Unique handcrafted pieces like Haitian papier-mâché pieces, hand loomed rugs or hand blocked Indian textiles or Senegalese baskets bring whimsy to the world at home.

US homewares stores – West Elm, Williams-Sonoma, Pottery Barn and Pottery Barn Kids – opened in Bondi Junction, Sydney in May. West Elm will open on Chapel Street in Melbourne in September this year.

COLOUR AND PATTERN

Bring a little bit of the seaside inside with these scatter cushions in nautical colours and coral patterns. Coral Chain stitch embroidered wool cushion, $117, Rangoon floral, $69, and stripe linen print, $55. linenmoore.com.au

HEAD AND TAIL

The Juliette bed ottoman perfectly compliments any Hamptons style bedframe or bedhead with its simple lines, tapered legs, exposed antique white frame and taupe linen upholstery. $362.50. townandcountrystyle.com.au

RUG UP

For chilly evenings or for a pop of colour, you can never have too many throws. Choose from the Favourite, Striped Favourite and Sunset ranges, a steal at only $39 to $69. Being 100% acrylic they're super-soft and warm. westelm.com.au
