

all that GLITTERS

FROM GLAMOROUS GOLD AND BRASS FOR A BIT OF BLING, TO COOL COPPER FOR A MORE INDUSTRIAL LOOK, METAL ACCENTS ARE THE IN THING RIGHT NOW. BY LUISA VOLPATO.

1. GLAMOUR KING Known for his love of bling and a penchant for Palm Springs, Jonathan Adler furniture is now available in Australia. Scalinatella dining table (crafted from a single sinuous brass tube and Carrera marble top), $4,295, cocorepublic.com.au 2. FINE LINES If you don't want to go too heavy on the metal, this slimline copper lacquered and glass Alba side table is the perfect solution. $349, bocomcept.com.au 3. BOWLED OVER Accessories are a great way to introduce some metal into your interior scheme, such as this Net bowl. $99, beyondfurniture.com.au

4. DANISH DETAIL The Smed stool with cork seat and brass frame represents simple Danish design at its best. $1,195, greatdanefurniture.com
5. LOOK UP Light up the room with a ceiling pendant that is sure to become a talking point. Elliott tall geometrical pendant with copper mesh, $369, beaconlighting.com.au. Verner Pantone Flower Pot in copper, $495, greatdanefurniture.com. Rope light in copper or brass with navy, white or black woven rope, $300, lightly.com.au 6. GOLDEN GLOW Add some sparkle and a touch of Baroque style to your bathroom with the chrome-plated Kartell by Laufen Gold Mirror. $1,465, recco.com.au
7. SOFT METAL Add some drama to an armchair with the copper grid cushion cover by Danish fashion and interior designer Louise Roe. $150, norsu.com.au 8. OLD IS NEW The Real Good Chair by Blu Dot in the copper-plated finish is intended to patina naturally with handling and age for a well-worn yet enduring look. It also ships flat as it folds along laser-cut lines. $399, bludot.com.au

{ LUISA VOLPATO IS AN INTERIOR DESIGNER, STYLIST AND WRITER. LUISAVOLPATO.COM.AU }

